*1957 Report.

District Superintendents' Support. The "average" salary of ministers should take into account the sums paid for the District Superintendents' Fund. In 1956, of the 496 districts within white jurisdictions, 463 districts paid their superintendents for salary, house and expense funds, a total of $4,250,000 or an average of $9,176. In recent years an increased number of district-owned parsonages have been purchased, most of which are not included in calculating the "average" salary figure. The highest average sum for the support of the district superintendent, $10,683, was paid by the South Central jurisdiction while the lowest average, $7,535, was paid by the North-eastern jurisdiction. The Central jurisdiction is not included in this calculation.

District Superintendents' Tenure of Office. Certain changes in the superintendency naturally take place each year. The number of districts during the last quadrennium varied from 567 to 573, and the change in superintendency was about 20% each year. For the four-year period 216 served the full six-year term, while 195 served for an abbreviated time from one to five years.

 A 9 Month Conference Year.

* A 10 Month Conference Year.

Note: Since the number of "organized churches" for Cuba was not received in 1957, the 1956 figure of 202 for "preaching places" was substituted. a more realistic figure been used somewhere near the current figure of 116, the Jacksonville Area would have shown an increase of 13 organized churches in 1958, the Southeastern Jurisdiction would have shown an increase of 44 organized Churches this year, and the whole church an increase of 44 instead of a decrease of 42.

STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the four quadrennia since, and for 1958. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

JUDICIAL COUNCIL of THE METHODIST CHURCH

Decision No. 137

Re: Standards for Wesley Foundations

DIGEST OF DECISION

The General Conference acted within its constitutional powers in directing the Board of Education of The Methodist Church through its Division of Educational Institutions to appoint a COMMISSION ON STANDARDS FOR WESLEY FOUNDATIONS to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations and report to the division the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the Commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 22, 1957, the Judicial Council received the following communication from Jay N. Bostrom, Conference Secretary, The Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church:

To: The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church

The Minnesota Annual Conference in its recent session called for a declaratory decision of the Judicial Council. The following excerpt from the daily journal for Saturday, June 15, 1957, gives the action taken.

"Referral to Judicial Council—W. A. Korfhage presented the following resolution: 'That the Minnesota Conference in session at Hamline Methodist Church, St. Paul, Minnesota, on Saturday, June 15, 1957, petition the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, the Hon. J. Ernest Wilkins, President, for a declaratory decision on Paragraph 1368, of the 1952 Discipline (Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline) and upon the means used by a General Conference Board in enforcing this paragraph. The parties affected are The National Board of Education, and the Committee of 11 on qualifications. This petition is authorized by Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.' O. D. Jackson moved referral without further debate. Seconded and carried."

I am sending this to you so that it may be placed on the agenda for the next meeting of the Judicial Council. If additional information is desired, I am certain that Rev. Wilbur A. Korfhage and others in the Minnesota Conference will be glad to supply it.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jay N. Bostrom, Conference Secretary
The Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

Jurisdiction

Under Subsection 8, Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the Minnesota Annual Conference.

Analysis

While the resolution adopted by the Minnesota Annual Conference requesting this declaratory judgment is not as precise and clear as might be desired, the apparent purpose of said resolution is to ask a declaratory judgment on the constitutionality of Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church and, if constitutional, the methods by which the requirements imposed in pursuance of said paragraph are to be enforced by the Board of Education and its Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations.

The first question relates then to the authority of the General Conference to enact said Paragraph 1367. The Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Two, Section I, Article IV (Par. 8), introductory Sub-section, provides that "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority as follows:"

Following this introductory statement a series of specific items falling under the legislative power of the General Conference is listed. Sub-Section 8, Article IV (Par. 8), Section I, Division Two, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church reads:

"To initiate and to direct all connectional enterprises of the Church, such as publishing, evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent, and to provide boards for their promotion and administration."

From the time of union this Judicial Council has consistently ruled that "The General Conference is the supreme legislative body of The Methodist Church and has been specifically empowered to legislate on all matters distinctively connectional. The Constitution specifically enumerates many items over which the General Conference shall have such authority in legislating, so as to make all such matters uniform throughout the Church." (Judicial Council Decision 7, 1940)

Again, this Judicial Council has ruled:

"Article IV, Section I, Division Two of the Constitution (Paragraph 8 of the 1948 Discipline) grants to the General Conference full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional. This is a broad grant of power, and unless there is found elsewhere in the Constitution some modification of, or a limitation to this power, the General Conference has the right to prescribe, etc." (Judicial Council Decision 83, 1952)

Thus the General Conference clearly has constitutional authority to enact legislation regulating the educational program of The Methodist Church, and acted under the Constitution in establishing the Board of Education of The Methodist Church with the provision that "The board shall have general oversight of the education interests of the church in the United States." (Paragraph 1325, 1956 Discipline) Further General Conference enactment provides that in the structure of said Board of Education

"There shall be a Division of Educational Institutions, which shall represent The Methodist Church in all activities connected with secondary, higher, and ministerial education. The division shall have an advisory relationship to all educational institutions affiliated with The Methodist Church: universities, colleges, schools, schools of theology, and Wesley Foundations in the United States. . . . Its principal objectives shall be: . . . to foster within these institutions the highest educational standards and soundest business practices." (Par. 1351, sections 1 and 2(b))

Furthermore, in Paragraph 1366, the General Conference has stated that "A Wesley Foundation is the organized educational ministry of The Methodist Church at a state or independent college or university. The character of this ministry shall be defined by the division.

Pursuant to the principles established by the legislation cited above, the General Conference adopted Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline:

"The division shall appoint a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations, which shall be the standardizing agency for all student work related to The Methodist Church at state and independent campuses in the United States. It shall be composed of six members of the division and five persons, not members of the General Board of Education, who are actively engaged in Wesley Foundation work, and who are fitted by training and experience to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations. This commission shall report to the division of the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences."

All of the above legislation falls within the powers of the General Conference, under the Constitution and, being in the imperative, is mandatory upon the Board of Education, Division of Educational Institutions, for execution.

The second question propounded by the Minnesota Annual Conference finds explication in Paragraph 1367 of the Discipline which requires that

"The division shall appoint a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations, which shall be the standardizing agency for all student work related to The Methodist Church at state and independent campuses in the United States," and provides that

"This Commission shall report to the division the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the Commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences."

The means to be used by The Board of Education and its Division of Educational Institutions in enforcing requirements for standardization are thus: (1) Listing by the division of the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established; (2) Requiring that a Wesley Foundation shall meet the standards required in order to qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences as Wesley Foundations.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the General Conference acted within its constitutional powers in the enactment of Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline and that the provisions of said paragraph direct the Division of Educational Institutions of The Board of Education of The Methodist Church through a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations and that only Wesley Foundations which this Commission reports to the Division of Educational Institutions as having met the standards established by the Commission qualify for financial support from the General Board and the Annual Conferences as approved Wesley Foundations.

Dissent

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr., Donald A. Odell, and Lester A. Welliver dissent from this Decision on the grounds that the Judicial Council lacks jurisdiction as noted in the Dissent to Decision No. 136.

Decision No. 138

Re: Whether the Trustees of an Annual Conference Can Dispose of Funds Belonging to The Woman's Society of Christian Service of a Discontinued Church.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Trustees of an Annual Conference can dispose of funds belonging to the Woman's Society of Christian Service of a discontinued church as directed by the Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 25, 1957, at a regular session of the North Indiana Annual Conference a motion was offered to authorize the Trustees of the Conference to dispose of the assets of a discontinued church, including $1,000.00 deposited to the credit of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of that Church. The propriety of this action was questioned and by common consent it was determined to defer the action until a decision might be secured from the Judicial Council. A motion was then passed requesting a declaratory decision on the matter from the Judicial Council.

Jurisdiction

We take jurisdiction under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Chapter IV, Section IX, Paragraph 188.1 of the 1956 Discipline after referring to the duty of a Board of Trustees of a discontinued or abandoned church to dispose of its property as the Annual Conference directs, provides:

" * * * if no such lawful trustees remain, or if for any reason said trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference * * * "

Since the Annual Conference was proposing to authorize its trustees to dispose of the assets we take it that there were no local church trustees remaining or that they had failed to make a disposition.

The meaning of the rest of the provision quoted seems clear to us. It comes from the Chapter dealing with property in that part of the Discipline pertaining to the local church. Part of Paragraph 281 in the last chapter in that part of the Discipline says: "In every local church there shall be a Woman's Society of Christian Service." (Underlining ours.) When established the Society is part of the local church, and subject to the general provisions of the Discipline governing the local church, where there are no special ones pertaining to the Society. When the whole ceases to exist, the parts making it up necessarily cease to exist. Though it is true the funds secured by the local Society belong to it subject to certain obligations to the Woman's Division of Christian Service (Paragraph 282, 1956 Discipline), there is no provision in the Dis- cipline concerning them other than that quoted above when the local church of which the Society is a part ceases to exist.

That being true the disposition of any property belonging to any such body at the time of abandonment or discontinuation of the local church is governed by Paragraph 188, particularly since the broad word, "property" is used in it. To us the intention of the provision is to provide a method of disposing of the assets of an abandoned or discontinued church and the bodies connected with it that is final and most beneficial to The Methodist Church. We feel that holding the Annual Conference has broad power to do so is consonant with the language and intent of the Discipline.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Trustees of an Annual Conference may dispose of funds belonging to the Woman's Society of Christian Service of a discontinued church as directed by the Annual Conference.

Decision No. 139

Re: Ruling of Bishop Bachman G. Hodge in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference Concerning the Application of Paragraph 1103 of the Discipline to the Methodist Children's Home at Selma, Alabama

DIGEST OF DECISION

The General Provisions of Part VII of the 1956 Discipline (Paragraphs 1101-1108) are applicable only to the general administrative agencies of The Methodist Church and cannot be held to apply to a Board of Directors or Trustees of a Children's Home which is the property of an Annual Conference or of Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following is a transcript from the Conference Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, page 186.

"Request For Ruling

"The following request for a ruling was presented at the Alabama-West Florida Conference, which met in Montgomery, Alabama. The request was made by Rev. L. B. Green, a member of the conference in the retired relation. It was presented on Wednesday, May 23, 1957. The following is a syllabus of the request:

"Brother Green states that two of the leading members of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home, located at Selma, Alabama, and owned and supported by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences, have used their positions on the board for their own financial advantage. Mr. Green further states that the Chairman of the Board, an architect, received fees for his services as the architect for the Children's Home. Furthermore, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Methodist Children's Home, an insurance agent, received fees for insurance services to the Home. Brother Green is of the opinion that the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home, Selma, Alabama, the property of the Birmingham Area of The Methodist Church, is subject to the provisions of Paragraph 1103 of the 1956 DISCIPLINE of The Methodist Church. He requested a ruling on the matter."

"Ruling of the Bishop

"Section 1103 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows:

"No person who receives compensation for services rendered or commissions of any kind from a board or other agency shall be eligible for voting membership on that board or agency."

"It is my opinion, and I so rule, that this section does not apply to inter-conference or conference boards or agencies. This section appears in Chapter I of Part VII of the Discipline and deals exclusively with the administrative agencies governing the general administrative services of the church as the Coordinating Council, Council on World Service and Finance, The Methodist Publishing House, the Board of Missions and other general administrative agencies.

"The fact that the General Conference of 1956 excluded certain general agencies from the provisions of this section, but took no action excluding agencies other than general administrative agencies, is persuasive of the fact that the General Conference intended this Section 1103 to apply only to the general administrative agencies of the entire church.

"An editorial note to Part VII of the Discipline defines 'agency' as a general term, meaning council, board, commission, committee, or other body established to carry out 'the connectional work of the church. Section 2100 of the 1956 Discipline defines 'connectional' as follows: 'Of or pertaining to the general organization or functioning of the Methodist Church, other than on a local-church basis.' The definitions which appear under Section 2100 are not official definitions, and were inserted by the editors only for the convenience of the reader. It is obvious that the definition of 'connectional' is not complete. It omits entirely any reference to all of the multitude of bodies and agencies between general conference level and the local church level.

"Section 791 of the 1956 Discipline relates to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and it is there provided that a member of this commission cannot be a member or employee of any conference board or other agency participating in the funds of the conference benevolence budget.

"Section 1612 of the 1956 Discipline forbids membership on the Board of Conference Claimants to any person indebted to or a beneficiary of conference claimants' funds.

"If Section 1103 applied to conference agencies, then there would be no necessity for the special provisions of similar nature of Sections 791 and 1612.

"The fact that the Discipline, in dealing with conference agencies, forbade interested parties serving only on the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and on the Board of Conference Claimants, Section 791 and 1612, indicates that these special rules on disqualification would apply only to these particular boards and to no other conference agency.

"If it had been intended that a member of a conference commission or agency should be ineligible for voting if he received compensation for service rendered such commission, board or agency, or any such conference agency, then the General Conference could have specifically legislated thereon. The fact that it did not, in my opinion, sustains my conclusion and ruling.

Bachman G. Hodge, Bishop
The Methodist Church
Birmingham Area

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Hodge is properly before the Judicial Council under Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Part VII of the 1956 Discipline is entitled "Administrative Agencies." Chapter 1 of Part VII is entitled "General Provisions." Paragraph 1103 is one of the paragraphs of this chapter. The question before us is whether Paragraph 1103 of these General Provisions can be held to apply to the Board of Directors or Trustees of a Children's Home owned and supported by the Alabama-West Florida and the North Alabama Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church.

The term "connectional" referred to by Bishop Hodge is part of an editorial attempt to define the word "agency" and is not a part of the text of the Discipline here. Connectionalism is a distinctive attribute of Methodism. It indicates that our system of polity is the opposite of congregationalism. The constitution declares that "The General Conference shall have full legislative powers over all matters distinctively connectional" (Par. 8 (1)). In such distinctively connectional matters the General Conference has exercised its authority on all levels of church organization, including the local church.

This, however, does not imply that specific provisions of the Discipline must be held to apply to all levels of church organization unless such seems to be the clear intent of the provisions.

The question before us is whether the General Conference intended the General Provisions of Chapter 1 of Part VII of the 1956 Discipline to apply to all levels of church agencies or only to the general Administrative agencies of the Church.

A careful reading of these General Provisions compels the conclusion that they could not have been intended to apply to any but the general agencies of The Methodist Church. With the single exception of the provisions in Par. 1103 it would be utterly impossible to apply the paragraphs of these General Provisions to agencies on any other level than that of the general church. It must be assumed that the provisions of Par. 1103 were also intended for such application only.

This is further corroborated by the proposed legislation to implement the report of the Survey Commission to the General Conference of 1952. On page 26 of the Daily Christian Advocate of 1952 is the originally proposed chapter 1 of Part VII of the Discipline. This proposed chapter 1 did not pass the General Conference in this form but it did indicate the thinking of the Survey Commission on "Administrative Agencies." The first paragraph of this proposed chapter 1 reads as follows—"The administrative agencies of The Methodist Church, hereinafter called the general agencies, shall include all committees, commissions, bureaus or sections, divisions, boards, departments and councils (except the Council of Bishops and the Judicial Council) created by the General Conference for the purpose of performing a specific function or functions." It is obvious that the Survey Commission was thinking in terms of "general agencies" when it proposed this chapter out of which the special Committee of Six drew the materials for the General Provisions which became chapter 1 of Part VII on Administrative Agencies.

It is true that Part VII of the 1956 Discipline also has provisions for subsidiary agencies to these general agencies on Jurisdictional, Annual Conference, District Conference and even Local Church levels. The paragraphs which deal with these subsidiary agencies, however, specify the provisions under which they must function, as chapter 1 specifies the general provisions under which the general agencies must function.

The General Conference has provided Sundry Provisions for "Trustees of schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, homes, orphanages, institutes and other institutions owned or controlled by The Methodist Church" in Paragraph 728 of Part V on "Temporal Economy" which provisions would apply to a Children's Home owned by an Annual Conference or by Annual Conferences. The specific provisions of Paragraph 1103, however, are not included in Paragraph 728.

Decision

It is the Decision of the Judicial Council that Paragraph 1103 of the 1956 Discipline is applicable only to the general administrative agencies of The Methodist Church and cannot be held as applying to the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home owned by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences of The Methodist Church. The ruling of Bishop Bachman G. Hodge in this case is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 140

Re: Ruling of Bishop Donald Harvey Tippet in the California-Nevada Annual Conference with Reference to the Report of Joint Committee on Distribution of Responsibility for Conference Claimants.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The report of the Joint Committee on Distribution of Responsibility for Conference Claimants submitted to the 1955 session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference did not change the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. Therefore, the ruling of Bishop Tippet on this question is affirmed.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference, Friday, June 18, 1954, upon motion by Myron Herrell, the following resolution was adopted: "That Myron Herrell, Roy E. Wilson and I. A. Engle be appointed as a committee to meet with a similar committee appointed by the Southern California-Arizona Conference and a representative of the Board of Pensions to adjudicate matters relating to annuity responsibility on account of service rendered to one or more of the predecessor Annual Conferences of the California-Nevada and Southern California-Arizona Annual Conferences and that, subject to agreement by the Executive Secretary of the Board of Pensions, this Committee be granted power to act on behalf of the California-Nevada Annual Conference." (The 1954 Journal of the California-Nevada Conference, page 71, third paragraph.)

One year later, on June 18, 1955, the committee authorized on June 18, 1954, submitted the following report:

"The report of the Joint Distributing Committee on page 43 of the 1940 Journal of the California Annual Conference assigns annuity responsibility to the successor Annual Conferences. The assignment of responsibility for years of service for men retired prior to 1940 is clear and is not dealt with in this report. Men with Fresno District years of service rendered prior to 1939, but who retired in 1940 or thereafter were not assigned in the 1940 Distributing Committee report. Our job, as a committee with power to act, was to complete the work of that committee.

"On December 20, 1954, the following action was taken by our Joint Committee:

"The clearing house is requested to allocate years of service of men who retired in 1940 and after in line with paragraph 1636, 1952 Discipline, in which pension responsibility for the service of ministers is allocated to the present Annual Conference within which the charge serviced is now situated. This plan of allocation is to be effective for the 1955 clearing house year."

"Agreements entered into by former Conferences and the action of the Joint Distributing Committee were not within our power to change. We therefore endeavored to restrict ourselves to completion of the 1940 report.

"We are continuing to negotiate differences of interpretation of the above action in regard to service rendered in the former language Conferences (Pacific German, Pacific Swedish, Western Norwegian-Danish). The total number of years involved in this difference of interpretation is 45.45 years of responsibility." (Page 155, 1955 Journal.)

During the discussion of the report, Dr. John R. Kenney requested in writing a ruling of the Bishop in the following points:

"(1) Can a Joint Committee change agreements entered into between Conferences, particularly when representatives of the Conferences involved are not members of said Joint Committee?"

"(2) Can a Joint Committee alter or change the Report of the Distributing Committee made up of three members from the Arizona Conference, and Pacific Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and from the Southern California and California Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church?"

"(3) Does the report of the Joint Committee, submitted to this conference, change and alter the Report of the Joint Distributing Committee, composed of three members from each of the Conferences being merged into two successor Conferences, in 1939-40?"

Bishop Tippet ruled as follows:

"In view of the answer to Question 3 hereinafter given, Questions 1 and 2 become moot questions, and consequently no attempt will be made to answer them here.

"Question 3 asks if the Report of the Joint Committee of 1954-55 changes and alters the Report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940.

"It does not. The Discipline of 1939, Paragraph 1312, granted the Distributing Committee power to allocate the Conference Claimants and the distributable assets of the Conference to be merged. This the Distributing Committee did. (Again see report of this Committee dated May 28, 1940.)

"The Joint Committee of 1955 in no way changed or altered these allocations either of Conference Claimants or of distributable assets—and in their report acknowledged that they could not. Rather they dealt with other matters of annuity responsibility as they affected the California-Nevada and the Southern California-Arizona Conference."

Jurisdiction

Since Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline requires the Judicial Council to pass upon the decisions of law made by the Bishops in Annual and District Conferences, it has jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

The record in this case shows that Bishop Tippet was requested to rule on three questions which were presented in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 40, Article VII, of the 1952 Discipline. On the first two of these he gave no ruling, saying that in ruling on the third, the others became moot questions and consequently no attempt would be made to answer them. He answered the third question by ruling that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter in any way the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. In this we concur.

In order to ascertain whether or not the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 changed or altered the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940, it is necessary to determine the scope of each report.

The report of the Joint Committee of 1955 states that "The assignment of responsibility for years of service for men retired prior to 1940 is clear and is not dealt with in this report." This has not been questioned. The Committee understood its task to be that of assigning certain men who had years of service rendered prior to 1939 but who had retired in 1940 or thereafter. This it did by unanimously requesting the clearing house to allocate the annuity responsibility for those men in line with Paragraph 1636 of the 1952 Discipline in which pension responsibility for the service of ministers is allocated to the Annual Conference within which a charge served is now situated. This allocation was to be effective for the 1955 clearing house year. This is known as divided annuity responsibility, which was taken over from the former Methodist Episcopal Church at the time of union and has been in the Discipline ever since.

It was doubtless to the assignment of these men to which the report of the Committee of 1955 referred in its statement, "Our job, as a Committee with power to act, was to complete the work of that Committee." It had no reference to the assignment of those who were Conference Claimants at the time the report of the 1940 Committee was made.

The Joint Distributing Committee of 1940 was set up in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 1312 of the 1939 Discipline with power

"to allocate the Conference Claimants and the distributable assets of the Conference to be merged."

It is to be noted that the Discipline gave power to this Committee to allocate only the Conference Claimants, that is, ministers who were already retired, widows and children of deceased ministers. It gave no power to this Committee to allocate annuity responsibility for ministers who were at the time in the effective relation. There is no evidence that the Committee exceeded the authority thus given it.

That the Committee recognized this limitation to the allocation of Conference Claimants only is evidenced by the following:

1. All of the persons allocated by name in the report were Conference Claimants at the time the report was adopted. No minister in the effective relation was named.

2. In the computation of assets and pension liabilities of the merging Conferences, which was to form the basis for the allocations, there is no computation of future liability for the pensions of men who would retire subsequent to 1940. If the Committee had been considering these men in its report, it would have figured the pension liability of them in arriving at an equitable allocation of all concerned.

Further supporting evidence that the 1940 report was intended to and actually did refer to the assignment of those who were Conference Claimants at the time the report was made and not of ministers who were then in the effective relation is to be found in the following references:

1. In the Journal of the California Conference for 1939 on page 38 there is a resolution which states, "and since it is proposed that the Northern Successor Conference assume the pension responsibility for all retired men of the Pacific Conference, etc.—; and the Southern Successor Conference assumes the pension responsibility for all retired men of the Arizona Conference etc.—."

An identical resolution is to be found in the Journal of the Pacific Conference for 1939 on page 23. Both refer to retired men only.

2. In the Journal of the California-Nevada Conference for 1942 on page 321 in the report of the Board of Conference Claimants appears the following:

"Whereas in the organization of the California and the Southern California-Arizona Conferences of the Methodist Church by the merging of the California and Southern California Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Pacific and Arizona Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Joint Distributing Committee allocated the responsibility for the service years of retired men belonging to the four Conferences in proportion to the ability of the two successor Conferences, but did not adjust the responsibility for accrued service years in the effective relation and—"

It follows, therefore, that since the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940 dealt only with these who were Conference Claimants at that time and since the Joint Committee of 1955 dealt only with certain men who were retired in 1940 and thereafter that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940.

In view of our conclusion with respect to question No. 3, it is our opinion that questions No. 1 and No. 2 become moot questions as was indicated by Bishop Tippet.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter in any respect the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. The ruling of Bishop Tippet on this question is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 141

Re: May an Annual Conference Adopt a Rule Establishing a Quorum for the Transaction of Business?

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference may adopt a rule establishing a quorum for the transaction of business.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 24, 1956, during the regular session of the New York Annual Conference, the following resolution was presented for action:

"That the Conference establish a quorum for the conduct of business to consist of at least one-fourth of the lay and ministerial numbers."

Bishop F. B. Newell, presiding at the Conference, made a statement concerning the resolution and read a part of the ruling given by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam during the New York Conference meeting at St. James Methodist Church, Kingston, New York, on May 3, 1945. Bishop Newell stated that if he ruled on the proposed resolution he would have to rule it out of order. He suggested that it would be better to refer the matter to the Judicial Council. Thereafter a motion was made and carried that the matter be referred to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine the question submitted by the New York Annual Conference for a declaratory decision, under the provisions of Paragraph 914, sub-paragraph 8, of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Analysis

Paragraph 634 of the 1956 Discipline provides that:

"The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure; provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted by The General Conference."

The Constitution of the Church (Paragraph 4 of the 1956 Discipline) provides that there shall be Annual Conferences as the fundamental bodies in the Church, and in Section VII, Article I of the Constitution (Paragraph 22 of the 1956 Discipline) it is stated that the Annual Conference is the basic body of the Church.

The ruling of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam made at the meeting of the New York Conference on May 3, 1945, was considered and upheld by the Judicial Council in its Decision No. 36. The facts in that case were that prior to the annual meeting of the New York Conference held on May 3, 1945, the members of the Conference were strongly urged not to attend. This was done for the purpose of preventing the attendance from exceeding the limit established by a wartime regulation of the Office of Defense Transportation of the United States. As a result the attendance at the Conference was very small. Bishop Oxnam ruled that there was no quorum required for meetings of Annual Conferences and therefore those present at the Conference constituted a legal session.

Insofar as it related to the matter at hand, the only pertinent holding of that decision is that no quorum for an Annual Conference is established in the law of the Church. It does not hold that an Annual Conference may not adopt a rule or by-law establishing a quorum for the conduct of business.

The precedents referred to in Bishop Oxnam's ruling are not controlling. In effect the rule states in those rulings of The Methodist Episcopal Church and The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, made many years prior to unification and the adoption of the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church, was that an Annual Conference has no quorum and might not establish a quorum for the transaction of business. In this connection it is important to note that the Discipline of The Methodist Protestant Church (1936), the other of the three uniting churches, as it existed at the time of unification provided that a majority of all members of the Annual Conference in attendance at an Annual Conference session should constitute a quorum. The precedents of all of the uniting churches are important insofar as they may give light concerning the intention of those who adopted the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church. It appears that the three uniting churches did not have a uniform rule with respect to this subject.

It also appears that neither the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church (1936) nor the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South (1938) in effect at the time of unification and the adoption of the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church contained a provision like or similar to the provisions of Paragraph 634 of the present Discipline. It necessarily follows that Paragraph 634 provides a new rule granting the Annual Conference the right to make the rules to govern its own procedure, the only limitation being that no such Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church or to the powers granted by the General Conference.

Under the Constitution and the enactments of the General Conference of The Methodist Church the composition and character of the Annual Conference as the basic body of the church has been materially changed through the years.

Such precedents cannot stand as controlling in opposition to the clear language of the Discipline. There is no provision in the Constitution, or in the enactments of the General Conference prohibiting an Annual Conference from establishing a quorum for the transaction of its business nor is there any language indicating an intention to carry over into the law of the Church any one or either of the prior conflicting precedents.

The affirmative provisions of Paragraph 634 of the Discipline control. This right, unless otherwise specifically limited, that is the right of adopting a rule fixing a quorum for the transaction of business, is a power inherent in any body. The General Conference of The Methodist Church has seen fit to adopt such a rule for itself. Paragraph 506 of the 1956 Discipline provides:

"When the General Conference is in session it shall require the presence of a majority of the whole number of delegates to the General Conference to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may take a recess or adjourn from day to day in order to secure a quorum and at the final session may approve the journal, order the record of the roll-call, and adjourn sine die."

Decision

It is therefore, the Decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference may adopt a rule establishing a quorum for the conduct of its business.

Decision No. 142

Re: The Power of a Central Conference to Add a New Paragraph to the Discipline in Accordance with the Provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline (Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline) of The Methodist Church.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The enactments of the Latin American Central Conference revising Paragraph 127 of the Discipline are contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church and may not be included in the Discipline of said Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 562 of the Discipline. (Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline)

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Latin American Central Conference in session November 11-18, 1956 approved the following paragraph to be included in the Discipline (Spanish edition) to be used in the area of said Conference.

Paragraph 127 bis. "We recognize the right that parents have to dedicate their children to the Lord, postponing baptism until the child accepts Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. The dedicated children shall be entered on the permanent records as candidates for membership, in a special section for them. The Minister shall diligently instruct the parents with regard to the vows they assume and he shall exhort them to be ever faithful therein."

At the same session of the Conference approval was given to amend Paragraph 127 of the Discipline as follows:

Paragraph 127, sentence 2, states: "It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord in Baptism as early as practicable." As amended, the words "in Baptism" are omitted causing the sentence to read: "It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord as early as practicable."

Following the approval to revise the Discipline as indicated the constitutionality of the action was challenged and a motion was made to refer the matter to the Judicial Council. The motion was duly seconded and more than one fifth of the members of the Conference voted to appeal to the Judicial Council to determine whether the Conference is empowered to make these modifications under the provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council, under Paragraph 905 of the 1956 Discipline, has jurisdiction to hear and determine this appeal.

Analysis

The enactments of the Latin American Central Conference herein appealed were adopted under the provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

The 1956 Discipline superseded the 1952 Discipline prior to the sessions of the Latin American Central Conference November 11-18, 1956. (See Paragraph 575) Paragraph 578 of the Discipline (1952 Edition) is carried forward as Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Edition and grants the Central Conferences the power "to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require regarding the local church, ministry, special advices, worship, and temporal economy within its territory, . . . provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church."

The Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 19, Section 5) describing the duties and powers of Central Conferences also states:

"To make rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference."

All Conferences of The Methodist Church are subject to limitations imposed by the Constitution of The Methodist Church, both in their usage and conferring of powers. The following limitations apply in the case under consideration.

Article of Religion XVII (Paragraph 77 of the Discipline) states: "The Baptism of young children is to be retained in the Church." The First Restrictive Rule of the Constitution governing the General Conference (Paragraph 9, Section 1) states: "The General Conference shall not revoke, alter, or change our Articles of Religion, or establish any new standards or rules of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine."

Paragraph 127 clearly defines our present existing and established standards of doctrine with reference to the dedication of children in Baptism, in the following:

"We hold that all children by virtue of the unconditional benefits of the atonement, are members of the family of God, and are therefore graciously entitled to Baptism. It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord in Baptism, as early as practicable."

The foregoing provisions of the Discipline clearly indicate that the enactment of the Latin American Central Conference involved in this appeal are contrary to the First Restrictive Rule of the Constitution of The Methodist Church. (Paragraph 9, Sec. 1) tending to alter the Article of Religion XVII and establishing a new standard or rule of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the enactments of the Latin American Central Conference revising Paragraph 127 of the 1956 Discipline are contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church and that said Conference does not have the right under the provisions of Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline to include them in the edition of the Discipline to be used in the area of the Latin American Central Conferences.

Decision No. 143

Re: Question—When an Annual Conference Is Incorporated Should the Sale of Property of an Abandoned Church Be Authorized by Action of the Conference Corporation in Session or by Action of the Annual Conference in Session as an Ecclesiastical Body?

DIGEST OF DECISION

The sale of property of an abandoned church should and must be authorized by action of an Annual Conference in session as an ecclesiastical body.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Ohio Annual Conference is incorporated. At each annual meeting of the Conference, a meeting of the members of the Conference Corporation is held. These meetings are referred to as corporate sessions and the President of the Board of Trustees or Directors of the corporation presides at such meetings. The Bishop presides at the other meetings of the Conference. Such meetings are referred to as ecclesiastical sessions of the Conference. At the Annual Conference held in 1957, the sale of property of an abandoned church was considered at a meeting of the members of the Conference Corporation or in other words in a corporate session of the Conference. The question arose as to whether the sale of the property of an abandoned church should be authorized at a corporate session of the Conference or by action taken at an ecclesiastical session.

The Conference has requested the Judicial Council to rule on the question. This request is in the nature of a request for a Declaratory Decision.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church to hear and determine the matter here submitted.

Analysis

Paragraph 188 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church provides:

"With the consent of the presiding bishop and of a majority of the district superintendents and of the District Board of Church Location and Building (Paragraphs 721-24) of the district in which the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any local church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. It shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees (Paragraph 190) to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct; and if no such lawful trustees remain, or if for any reason said trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference; . . ."

This section also provides that:

"All the deeds, records, and other official and legal papers of a Methodist church that is declared to be abandoned or otherwise discontinued shall be collected by the district superintendent in whose district said church was located and shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the secretary of the Annual Conference."

This section also provides:

"When a church property has been abandoned by its membership and no abandonment action has been taken by the Annual Conference, and circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Annual Conference trustees may take control of the property, with the consent of the presiding bishop and the District Board of Church Location and Building of the district in which the property is located. And in the event of the sale or lease of said property the trustees of the Annual Conference shall recommend to the Annual Conference at its next session the disposition of the proceeds derived from such sale or lease."

It is clear from the language of this section that the abandonment of a local church and the disposition of its property are matters to be determined by the Annual Conference as an ecclesiastical body. Not only is the consent of the presiding bishop and a majority of the district superintendents required before the Annual Conference may declare any local church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned, but in addition, the paragraph requires that all of the deeds and records of the abandoned church be collected by the district superintendent in whose district the church is located and be deposited for safekeeping with the secretary of the Annual Conference.

In Decision No. 38 of the Judicial Council, given May 9, 1946, it appears that the Judicial Council considered a ruling of Bishop William C. Martin made at a meeting of the Central Kansas Annual Conference, which had been incorporated under authority given by Paragraph 625 of the Discipline. The Bishop's ruling reviewed by the Judicial Council was:

"The Central Kansas Conference of The Methodist Church is an incorporated body and is competent in any regular session of the Conference to transact any and all business of a legal nature that may be regularly brought before it."

The Judicial Council in that decision held that where an Annual Conference has been incorporated and the corporation has adopted by-laws, the corporate sessions must be called in the manner provided by the by-laws and that when the Conference is once in such corporate session it may exercise all of the powers of a corporation to amend its charter and by-laws and to transact any and all business of a legal nature that may be regularly brought before it.

This decision makes a distinction between the Conference as an ecclesiastical organization and as a corporate body. Even though an Annual Conference is incorporated, under the provisions of Paragraph 625, 1956 Discipline, it continues to retain its character as an ecclesiastical organization with the powers and duties relating to ecclesiastical matters provided in the Discipline. The effect of this decision is to establish the rule that only when a corporate meeting has been called, as provided in the corporate by-laws, can the corporation transact such business of a legal nature as may be brought before it. It appears to be clear from this that conversely such business as might be of an ecclesiastical nature could only be transacted at a meeting of the Conference presided over by the Bishop and help in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, that is, at an ecclesiastical session of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the sale of property of an abandoned church should and must be authorized by action of an Annual Conference in session as an ecclesiastical body.

Decision No. 144

Re: Appeal of J. R. Parker

DIGEST OF DECISION

When an appellant fails to comply with the provision of Par. 1025 of the 1956 Discipline which requires that a written statement of the grounds of appeal be furnished at the same time notice of appeal is given, the appeal must be dismissed.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

J. R. Parker, a member of the Kentucky Annual Conference, was found guilty on a charge of "unministerial conduct" at a trial held in the Centenary Methodist Church, Lexington, Kentucky, on October 25th and 26th, with Bishop William T. Watkins presiding. The penalty fixed by the trial court was three years suspension followed by an appearance before the Conference Committee on Conference Relations.

The case was appealed and heard by the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction at the Wesley Memorial Building in Atlanta, Georgia, on February 19, 1957. The Court of Appeals upheld the verdict in the case of J. R. Parker but reduced the penalty of suspension from three years to one year ending with the opening of the 1957 session of the Kentucky Annual Conference.

Russell R. Patton and John L. Tilton, counsel for the defense, sent the following letter, dated March 16, 1957, to Dr. Albert S. Trulock, President and Dr. Brunner M. Hunt, Secretary of the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction—

"Dear Brethren:

This is to inform you of our intent to carry this case to the Judicial Council. Transcript from your court reached us on Thursday, March 21st. A few days will be required for the preparation of our brief. But in keeping with the 30 day notice we present this declaration. . ."

On August 17th, approximately five months later, counsel for the appellant sent out to all parties concerned a Brief which contained the grounds for this appeal.

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 1045 of the 1956 Discipline the Judicial Council has the authority to hear and determine this appeal.

Analysis

Paragraph 1025 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows—

"In all cases of appeal the appellant shall within thirty days give notice of appeal and at the same time shall furnish to the officer receiving such notice, and to the counsel for the church, a written statement of the grounds of his appeal, and the hearing in the appellate court shall be limited to the grounds set forth in such statement."

In Decision No. 3 of the Judicial Council is this statement—

"Paragraph 897, Section 11, of the 1936 Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church provides that in all cases of appeal the Appellant shall furnish a written statement of the grounds of his appeal, and the hearing in the Appellate Court shall be limited to the grounds set forth in such statement. The Appellant did not comply with any of the requirements of this section. He merely 'appealed.' This may seem technical, but judicial procedure as set forth in the Discipline is necessarily technical and must be complied with in order to protect both the interests of the parties involved, and the Church.

"The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1936 adopted a report of the Judiciary Committee (Report No. 9, Appeal of A. H. Magee, found on page 459 of the General Conference Journal of 1936), in which an appeal was dismissed because the Appellant failed to furnish a written statement of the grounds of his appeal."

Such a written statement of the grounds of appeal was not provided by the Appellant in this case, either to the President or Secretary of the Court of Appeals to whom the notice of appeal was sent, or to Dr. G. R. Tomlin, counsel for the church, until approximately five months after the notice of appeal.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that because of the failure of the Appellant, J. R. Parker, to comply with the clear provisions of Paragraph 1025 of the 1956 Discipline this appeal must be and hereby is dismissed.

Decision No. 145

Re: The Constitutionality of Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline Referring to the Restriction on Loans of Pension-Related Funds to Local Churches and Its Applicability to the West Texas Conference Endowment Association.

DIGEST OF DECISION

Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional and is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 1917 the West Texas Annual Conference authorized the creation of the West Texas Conference Endowment Association for the purpose of acquiring and administering funds, the income from which was to be used solely "to assist in maintaining, providing and caring for the Conference Claimants of the West Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South."

Across the years this Corporation has performed the purpose for which it was created, and in doing so has from time made loans to local churches taking deeds of trust on Church property to secure the same. It is asserted that this is perfectly legal under the Texas law and under the charter of the corporation.

In 1956 the General Conference passed an act in conflict with this procedure. Paragraph 1612 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows:

FINANCIAL POLICY

"The following rules shall apply to financial administration of Annual Conference pension and pension-related permanent funds:

- (1)
- (3) No local church or organization thereof shall be eligible to obtain a loan in any amount from such funds."

At its regular session, the Southwest Texas Annual Conference passed a resolution requesting the Judicial Council to make a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision determining whether Section (3) of Paragraph 1612 of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional, and if it should be held constitutional then determining whether or not it is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension related funds in its hands.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council, under Paragraph 914 (8), takes jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

The Constitution in Paragraph 8, Article IV, gives the General Conference full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional. In sub-section (3) of this same paragraph, the General Conference has power "to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences. . . ."

Paragraph 1612, which is in question, deals with the rules applying to the "financial administration of Annual Conference pension and pension-related permanent funds." This is clearly a connectional matter. It also relates to the powers and duties of an Annual Conference, since this association was organized by the West Texas Annual Conference. It is therefore clearly within the power of the General Conference to enact the legislation under consideration.

The West Texas Conference Endowment Association was formed to assist in maintaining, providing and caring for the Conference Claimants of that Conference by accumulating and administering funds, the income of which were to be used for the above mentioned purpose. These funds are therefore "pension-related permanent funds."

The evidence indicates that some of these funds were loaned to local churches and deeds of trust taken on the Church property to secure the same. While this is asserted to be perfectly legal under the Texas law and under the charter of the Corporation, it is in violation of the provision in Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline, which provides "no local church or organization thereof shall be eligible to obtain a loan in any amount from such funds."

We hold that Paragraph 1612 (3) is constitutional, and since the West Texas Conference Endowment Association is a Conference-created organization dealing with pension-related permanent funds, the provisions of Paragraph 1612 (3) are binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that Paragraph 1612 (3) of the Discipline of 1956 is constitutional, and that it is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

Concurring Opinion

In concurring with the majority of the Council with respect to taking jurisdiction in this case which involves the request of an Annual Conference for a decision on a constitutional question, we recognize that the language of the Discipline, especially that of Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, is capable of more than one interpretation. This should be clarified by a revision of the legislation by the General Conference.

Since this is a question of the procedure by which a constitutional question reaches the Judicial Council and does not involve the power of the Judicial Council to decide such questions properly before it, and pending such revision and clarification of the procedures by which constitutional questions may reach the Judicial Council, we feel that questions of such importance to the life of the church should have the consideration of the Council. We therefore concur both in taking jurisdiction in this case and in the Decision reached.

Re: The Publication of Names and Addresses of Local Church Lay Leaders in the Journals of Annual Conferences

DIGEST OF DECISION

Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the 1956 Discipline is not in violation of the Constitution of The Methodist Church and its provisions for the publication of the names of Local Church Lay Leaders in the Journals of Annual Conferences is mandatory.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Under date of June 24, 1957, the secretary of the Judicial Council received from J. Henry Cox, secretary of the Illinois Conference, the following resolution:

"WHEREAS Paragraph 362.10, Methodist Discipline of 1956, defining in part the duties of the district superintendents, states, 'To report the names of the church lay leaders in his district to the secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the conference journal; etc.' and

WHEREAS local church lay leaders are officers of the local church and are not members of the Annual Conference, and

WHEREAS other local church officers, names and addresses are not printed in the the Conference Journal, and

WHEREAS to establish such a precedent opens the way for insertion in the Annual Conference Journal of other local church officers, and

WHEREAS such insertion in the printed records of the Annual Conference could become voluminous and expensive, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Illinois Conference of The Methodist Church request from the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church an interpretation or ruling, first, as to the constitutionality of such legislation on the part of the General Conference of The Methodist Church, and secondly, if such legislation is constitutional is the insertion of such a list of local church officers mandatory, or is it to be regarded as optional on the part of the person or persons charged with responsibility for publishing the Annual Conference Journal.

The Publishing Commission of the Illinois
Conference of The Methodist Church, 1901

/s/ J. Henry Cox, Secretary"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council takes jurisdiction of the question herein presented under Paragraph 914, Section 8 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the Methodist Discipline of 1956 was adopted by the General Conference of 1956 and includes within it the duties of the district superintendent as related to the reporting of certain names to the various agencies and boards of the church which require them. The concern of the Illinois Conference is specifically with the first requirement of this paragraph,

"To report the names and addresses of the church lay leaders in his district to the secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the conference journal."

The Illinois Conference requests the Judicial Council to determine whether or not the General Conference possesses the constitutional right to adopt such legislation and if it does, to render a Declaratory Decision determining whether this provision is permissive or mandatory upon an Annual Conference.

The Constitution of The Methodist Church in Paragraph 22 of the Discipline of 1956 which is Section VII, Article II of the Constitution, reserves to the Annual Conference certain rights and privileges but none of which would include the matter now before us. The article concludes,

"It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

The Constitution under Paragraph 8, which is Section I, Article IV, grants to the General Conference the power

"to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences."

There is no question, therefore, in the opinion of the Judicial Council that the General Conference was within its constitutional authority in enacting the legislation contained in the paragraph under question.

We take it that the principal concern of the Illinois Conference is in the second part of its query,

"If such legislation is constitutional, is the insertion of such a list of local church officers mandatory or is it to be regarded as optional on the part of the person or persons charged with the responsibility for publishing the Annual Conference Journal?"

Reference to the Daily Christian Advocate of the General Conference of 1956 reveals that the legislation under question was proposed by the Committee on Lay Activities in their report No. 5, page 189, Daily Christian Advocate, which reads as follows:

"The district superintendent shall secure the name and address of the church lay leader (s) and he shall present the name and address to the secretary of the Annual Conference at the meeting of the Annual Conference and this list shall be printed in the Annual Conference Journal by the Annual Conference secretary.

/s/ Ray H. Nichols, Chairman
/s/ T. Russell Reitz, Secretary"

This report unanimously adopted by the Committee, and entered upon the calendar of the General Conference, would indicate the original intent of this legislation as being a mandatory provision.

Page 517 of the Daily Christian Advocate reveals the fact that because of some misunderstanding as to where this provision should be placed, the report was withdrawn by Ray H. Nichols, chairman of the Committee on Lay Activities, with the consent of the General Conference. On page 518, however, consideration of this report is renewed following a question addressed to the chairman of the Committee on Lay Activities,

"Mr. Nichols, I should like to know if in report No. 5 the withdrawing of that report means that we are not requesting the publication of the names and addresses of church lay leaders in Conference journals?"

To this question Mr. Nichols replied for the committee,

"No, it does not mean that."

Following this, Murray H. Leiffer, chairman of the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision, made the following statement,

"There are two legislative recommendations which request the district superintendent to report names and addresses of certain persons. This particular report, and also report 27 from the Committee on the Ministry. Since two of the proposed actions make the superintendent responsible, the Committee on Correlation proposes that these directives become part of one inclusive statement and that this be placed under Paragraph 362 in the Discipline. You may recall that 362 lists all the duties of the district superintendent. We, therefore, propose this as an action to cover both reports."

On page 624 of the Daily Christian Advocate, column 1, we find that Murray H. Leiffer presented report No. 1 of the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision, which report was adopted by the General Conference and became a part of the Discipline of 1956, Paragraph 362, Section 10 and includes the provision which is being questioned by the Illinois Conference. In his presentation of the report, Dr. Leiffer said,

"The action recommended here under Report No. 1 has the full approval of both chairmen who are also on the platform this morning."

Since the legislation contained in Paragraph 362 originated in a report of the Committee on Lay Activities, the language of which was clearly mandatory, and, since there is no evidence in the Daily Christian Advocate of any amendment or desire to change the original intent of the report and, since the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision of which Mr. Leiffer was Chairman, is not a legislative committee and is, therefore; not empowered to change the meaning of any legislation or proposed legislation it seems clear, and the Judicial Council so holds, that the intent of the General Conference in adopting this legislation was to adopt the original intention of the Committee on Lay Activities which would make mandatory the printing of the names and addresses of church lay leaders in the journal of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the publication of names and addresses of Local Church Lay Leaders as directed by the 1956 General Conference in Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional. It is the further decision of the Judicial Council that the insertion of such names in the Annual Conference Journal is mandatory upon the Annual Conference.

Decision No. 147

Re: The Right of a Central Conference to Amend Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church Relating to the Qualifications for Membership or the Official Board of the Local Church.

DIGEST OF OPINION

A central conference cannot adopt legislation which would have the effect of changing, modifying or altering Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church relating to the qualifications for membership on the Official Board of the local church.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The 1956 session of the Latin American Central Conference of the Methodist Church held in Cochabamba, Bolivia, November 11th-18th, 1956, adopted a resolution to modify the last paragraph of Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church (1952 Edition) by rewriting said last paragraph, which reads as follows:

"All lay members of the board shall be members of the local Methodist church; and in nominating and electing persons to such membership the utmost care shall be taken that only morally disciplined persons shall be so nominated with special reference to total abstinence from alcoholic beverages."

so that said paragraph would read as follows:

"All lay members of the board shall be members of the local Methodist church; and in nominating and electing persons to such membership, the utmost care shall be taken to search for such members of good testimony within the congregation as shall have given evidence of their fidelity to the church and of responsibility in the accomplishment of their duties."

This proposed change was approved by a majority vote of said Conference. Following this action the constitutionality of the proposed modification was challenged and a motion was made to appeal to the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church for a decision thereupon. This motion was duly seconded and was supported by more than one-fifth of the members of the Conference.

Jurisdiction

The question here presented is properly before the Judicial Council in accordance with the procedure set forth in Paragraph 905 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church (1952 and 1956 Editions).

Analysis

The question presented by this appeal is this: Does a Central Conference have the right to modify or change the qualifications for membership on the Official Board of the local church when such qualifications have been established by legislation enacted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church?

Division Two, Section I, Article IV of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 8 of The Discipline of The Methodist Church, 1956 Edition) provides:

"The General Conference shall have full legislative powers over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said power shall have authority as follows:

14. To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the church." (Emphasis added)

The broad terms of the above quoted section of the Constitution of The Methodist Church clearly indicate that the General Conference of The Methodist Church is the legislative body of the church. There is no other legislative body in the church.

Division Two, Section V of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 6 through 19 of the Discipline) provides for the organization and administration of Central Conferences for the work of The Methodist Church outside of the United States of America. Article IV of said Section V (Paragraph 19 of the Discipline) spells out the powers and duties conferred on the Central Conferences by the Constitution, and sub-paragraph 5 of the said Article IV grants Central Conferences the power "to make such rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference." (Emphasis added)

This appeal raises the question as to whether the action taken by the Latin American Central Conference on which this appeal arises was an effort to "make a rule or regulation for the administration of the work within its boundaries," or whether it was an attempt to legislate—not only to legislate, but to legislate in direct opposition to legislation already enacted by the General Conference as contained in Paragraph 207 of the Discipline.

It is our opinion and we so hold that the attempt of the Latin American Central Conference to alter and amend Paragraph 207 of the Discipline insofar as it related to the churches within its boundaries was an effort or attempt to enact legislation and was not an attempt on its part to make a rule or regulation for the administration of the work within its boundaries. This a Central Conference cannot do, especially in those cases in which the General Conference has already adopted a policy by specific General Conference legislation. To hold otherwise would be to vest in the Central Conferences the power to accept or reject at will the legislation of the General Conference of The Methodist Church or to concede that the General Conference of The Methodist Church can delegate its legislative powers.

The General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church. This principle is well established in the civil law. Undoubtedly, legislation must often be adapted to complex conditions involving a host of details with which the legislative body cannot deal directly. The Constitution of our church recognizes the necessity for flexibility and practicality concerning the operation of the Central Conferences of the church.

Division Two, Section V, Article IV, Paragraph 5 quoted above provides the Constitutional framework within which rules and regulations may be adopted by the Central Conferences for the administration within their boundaries of the broad policy enactments of the General Conference. The General Conference itself has implemented this Constitutional grant of flexibility and practicality to the Central Conferences by the adoption of Paragraphs 562-582 of the Discipline (1956 Edition), but by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested. It has granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries as conditions require, but always within the framework of the legislative policy as fixed by the General Conference. As in example, by Paragraph 562 of the Discipline the General Conference has extended to the Central Conferences the power to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require regarding the local church, ministry, special advices, worship and temporal economy within its territory, providing that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church. The above quoted language was not intended to grant any blanket legislative authority to the Central Conferences. The General Conference could not have done so without violating the Constitution. This Constitutional principle was apparently recognized by the General Conference for in the paragraphs immediately following Paragraph 562 of the Discipline it spelled out with particularity the administrative areas in which the Central Conferences may make these permitted "changes and adaptations." It is significant that nowhere does the General Conference abdicate its legislative functions nor attempt to transfer those functions to the Central Conferences.

Paragraph 207 of the Discipline is a legislative enactment by the General Conference of The Methodist Church and establishes the policy of the church concerning qualifications for membership on the Official Board of the local church. This legislation establishes the position of the church on the subject therein referred to unless and until modified or amended by the General Conference itself. The action of the Latin American Central Conference from which this appeal was taken was an effort to amend or modify the legislation so adopted by the General Conference and is therefore void.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the resolution adopted by the Latin American Central Conference from which this appeal was taken was and is unconstitutional and void.

February 8, 1958

Dissenting Opinion

The majority opinion is based on two assumptions: (1) that "The General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church"; and (2) that in adopting Paragraphs 562-582 of the Discipline (1956 Edition) "it (the General Conference) has only granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries as conditions require" and that "by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested."

With neither of these assumptions can I agree. Three constitutional powers vested in the General Conference give it complete authority to invest Central Conferences with powers to modify legislative enactments of the General Conference so long as these modifications are within the constitutional limits restricting General Conference legislation itself.

Paragraph 8, Introductory Statement of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, gives the General Conference "full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional." Paragraph 8, Subsection 4, of that Constitution permits the General Conference "to provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the church outside the United States of America." And Paragraph 19, Introductory Statement, declares that "The Central Conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference."

Invested with "full legislative power," directed "to provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the church outside the United States of America," and invested with full authority to confer "powers and duties" upon Central Conferences, the General Conference of The Methodist Church can assuredly delegate its legislative powers to Central Conferences to the fullest extent of the constitutional limitations set upon the General Conference itself in legislating.

This appears to have been admitted both by the proponents and the opponents of the two constitutional amendments adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church in 1928 and approved by Annual Conferences of that denomination during the ensuing quadrennium. These were the first constitutional provisions for Central Conferences in Methodism. Paragraph 19, Introductory Statement of the Constitution of The Methodist Church derives directly from one of these and preserves most of its language. These amendments were freely and completely discussed over a period of days before their adoption by the General Conference, and the whole tenor of the discussion indicates that general thinking gave widest interpretation to the powers with which the General Conference would be invested in dealing with Central Conferences.

The interpretation that "The General Conference of The Methodist Church can assuredly delegate its legislative functions to Central Conferences to the fullest extent of the constitutional limitations imposed upon the General Conference itself in legislating" has been not only supported by what seems to have been the thinking of those who originally adopted the Constitutional provisions now in question but also by this Judicial Council. In Decision 121, adopted on July 30, 1955, this Council, without dissent, adopted an opinion stating specifically that the General Conference did have constitutional power to authorize a Central Conference, if the Central Conference should see fit to do so, to modify Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline, said paragraph being without question not merely a rule or regulation but specific General Conference legislation on a matter of great importance.

The majority opinion, therefore, places a strait-jacket upon the General Conference in its dealing with Central Conferences which is not warranted by the provisions of the Constitution.

Nor can I agree with the subsidiary assumption of the majority opinion that in adopting Paragraphs 562-582 "It (the General Conference) 'has only granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries' and that 'by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested.'"

Paragraphs 562-582—especially Paragraphs 562, 563, 565, 574, and 575—relate not simply to "rules and regulations" but by any definition to "essential legislative functions." The most cursory examination reveals that they range the gamut of most matters on which the General Conference legislates.

The understanding of the Central Conferences for the last eighteen years, since union, has been that to them broad powers to change and alter legislation enacted by the General Conference has been conferred by these and like paragraphs in preceding quadrennial editions of the Discipline. Under such understanding, as an examination of the Discipline of the Latin American Central Conference, the Africa Central Conference, and the Southern Asia Central Conference reveals, literally scores of "changes and adaptations" of the General Conference legislation have been made across the years and now exist in these editions. These practices and changes, especially in regard to power to change Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline, seemed to have received Judicial approval in Decision 121.

And, furthermore, the very wording of these Paragraphs 562-582 would indicate that the General Conference was knowingly dealing with something more than mere "rules and regulations." Note in Paragraph 562 the limitations so carefully placed upon the power of Central Conferences to make "changes and adaptations." Certainly these limitations do more than protect the General Conference against minor adjustment of "rules and regulations" for the work of the Central Conferences.

The change in Paragraph 207 made by the Latin American Central Conference was made under the provisions of Paragraph 652. The General Conference intended through this paragraph to invest in Central Conferences the power to make changes and adaptations in "legislative enactments" of the General Conference under the limitations and restrictions imposed in the paragraph itself. The General Conference was constitutionally empowered to invest such power in a Central Conference. The proposed change in the Latin American Central Conference of Paragraph 207 was within the restrictions imposed by Paragraph 562.

Although I may not agree with the advisability of this change and regret its adoption, I must hold that it was legally and constitutionally enacted.

Therefore, I respectfully dissent from the majority opinion.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been transferred to a mission conference or removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Bold-face type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.

For the wonder of thy beauty, manifest in the world, for thy wisdom inspiring the works of men, and for thy fatherly love shown forth to us in Jesus Christ, we give thee thanks, O God. For the happiness of our earthly life, for home and friends, and for the joy of loving and being loved; for the power to love thee, for the right to pray to thee, and for thine answers to our prayers; for thy love in stooping to our race throughout the ages, revealing the fullness of thy grace and truth, and for all prophets, saints, benefactors and lovers of God and man who have seen the vision of thy glory; but above all for Jesus Christ, thy love incarnate, who came to free us from sin and the fear of death and to bring in the reign of righteousness and life, we lift our hearts with our hands in praise to thee.
